

Body Movements Test Grade 6

M.M 32

Q 1 Very short answer :

2x5=10

- a. What are those animal that have a backbone known as?
- b. How many bones make up the human skeleton?
- c. How many pairs of legs do cockroach have?
- d. Is snail a vertebrate?
- e. Where are immovable joints found in the human body?

Q 2 Match the following

1x10=10

- |                    |                         |
|--------------------|-------------------------|
| a. Upper limb      | 1. Pelvic girdle        |
| b. Knee            | 2.Femur                 |
| c. Hip girdle      | 3.Ball and Socket Joint |
| d. Lower limb      | 4.Hinge Joint           |
| e. Shoulder girdle | 5.Pectoral girdle       |
| f. Pivot joint     | 6.Humerus               |
| g. Cartilage       | 7.Neck                  |
| h. Invertebrate    | 8.External ear          |
| i. Hip joint       | 9.Protects heart        |
| j. Ribcage         | 10.No backbone          |

Q3. Short answer question 2x2=4

- a. Why do animal need to move?
- b. How do muscles help to move?

Q4. List the function of the skeleton in humans.

3

Q5. What is the role of the following in our body:

5

- a. Vertebral column
- b. Joints
- c. Ribcage
- d. Girdles
- e. Muscles